Temptations to buy, temptations to cheat, temptations to grind down the seller, temptations to take in the buyer, temptations to pass old goods for new and stale goods for fresh, temptations to wrangle, and sometimes temptations to despair, --all these were abundant in Paradise Row. And in the cold winter weather, when the bitter frost occasionally got to the heart, and the piercing wind carried on a dreary performance of its own in chimneys where the fire wasn't always there to fight it out, these last sometimes went to the heart with the frost, and howled through the souls of struggling folk with the wind; and only a very warm fire indeed of love and hope was sufficient to keep them out or to fight them down. A dreadful circumstance had happened to Nelly on the Sunday morning. She had...
