The ability to recognize people, places, signs and character traits can mean the difference between success and failure in getting your desired result in business or in a relationship. You cant recognize it except you have a vivid description of it or you must have seen or experienced the situation before. This book is to sharpen your ability to recognize true love when you come across it or simply as a roadmap for you to follow and demonstrate it to others. Always remember that the best way to attract true love to yourself is when you give it to your partner. Dont go further in this book if you dont want to become a true lover! Many of the ways of recognizing true love practically are not always isolated. One quality always attracts many others naturally. They may not all be there in every relationship in the beginning of it but theyll naturally spring up if conscious steps are taken to cultivate them. Friend, go for true love! Its the greatest. True love carries power with it, power to effect any desired change in the lives of those who share it. The hearts of a man and woman truly bonded together in true love can create the force required to bring about a transformation in any aspect of life. Please bear in mind that the kind of love were referring to in this book has to do with the man woman relationship that leads to marriage or that should exist between married couples.
